This is the best researched account of the events of 1865 in Jamaica, the book looks into the circumstances that takes us up to the time of the uprising. Open the eyes of the reader that there was an underlying current in the Island of Jamaica that was going to rise up at some point. Paul Bogle becomes the main proponent, who finally takes the fight to the authorities, who (Governor Eyre)fearful of Bogles' growing stature and his insight into tackling the problems. Bogle leaves his indelible mark on the History of Jamaica and how it has evolved. Paul Bogle even as a National Hero of Jamaica has not been given the kind of respect that he deserves for the changes that his actions created and that he did this with the full knowledge of the impending consequences. The Killing time through the work of Gad Heuman redresses the exceptional role of this man, Paul Bogle.

This was very informative. Anyone looking for information on the Morant Bay Rebellion should read this book. This was thoroughlyresearched and well written.

This was an informative book and one I enjoyed. Good on a black rebellion in Jamaica in 1865 against Britain.
